

Jake Menghini Museum

January, 2018

Dear Crafters and Vendors,

You're invited—to be a participant of our 4th Annual Jake Menghini Craft and Vendor Show. We look forward to having this event and celebrating SPRING! As is our tradition we are again hosting this crafter and vendor show the weekend of Palm Sunday.

I would like to remind you, some folks are looking forward to purchasing Easter, Mother's Day, and Prom items. I know you all will keep that in mind when you check your inventory.

We will have wake-up coffee, at no charge, for your enjoyment.

On behalf of the Jake Menghini Museum Partners, we appreciate having you participate in this great fundraiser. Thank you!
